Kent, the Garden of England

Kent is England's oldest county with historic houses, castles, and cathedrals. Along the 350 miles of coastline, Kent is home to the White Cliffs of Dover famously featured in music, film, and literary works, and you can see France on a clear day from Folkstone. Canterbury is a lively student city with a vibrant cultural scene, buzzing market and picturesque surroundings. Kent is well connected by public transport, with regular bus and train services.

- High speed train direct to Central London in 1 hour
- Easy links to London Gatwick Airport and Heathrow airport

A student village in the heart of campus

Student accommodation village on the Canterbury campus is a safe, welcoming community of students. You will find some of your best friends in your university accommodation and you will have some of your best times too. Whether it is cooking up a feast; watching a film in your room with friends in Tyler Court; conjuring up some drinking games together in your shared kitchen in Turing; or enjoying a Domino's 'Two for Tuesday' together at your Pier Quays flat. Rooms cost approximately £122-£296 per week at Canterbury, and approximately £152 per week at Medway.
